

Higher Education Headlines

Jan. 24, 2014

Governor Nixon declares Butler, Ripley counties certified 'work ready,' Jan. 23

Local reaction mixed to Gov. Nixon's education funding proposals, Jan. 22

Schaefer, Rowden take hard line on Nixon Budget in committee hearings, Jan. 23

Columbia College crowd cheers incoming President Scott Dalrymple during formal introduction, Jan. 22

Nixon finds little Republican support for budget full of new spending during State of the State, Jan. 22

Nixon wants more money for Missouri schools, spurns GOP tax cut, Jan. 22

Gov. Jay Nixon's investments would lift Missouri, Jan. 22

Gov. Jay Nixon turns focus to education in State of the State address, Jan. 21

Nixon proposes school aid hike, Jan. 21

Missouri College Advising Corps plans to double in size over next two years, Jan. 21

Nixon wants to renovate hospital for nursing classes, Jan. 21

Nixon proposes spending $10M to acquire, renovate St. Mary's campus for LU, Jan. 20

Nixon to make case for education spending, Jan. 20

State higher ed budgets rebound, Jan. 20

Legislator says education standards likely to face no opposition in House, Jan. 19

Missouri lawmakers shift strategies on college funding, Jan. 18

Challenge for Missouri lawmakers: What to do with all this extra money? Jan. 17